Witnessing to Mormons

Over the past few months I have been in contact with women I grew up with in the Mormon church via Facebook. My prayer is that some of these dear ladies will come to know the Lord. I have found that they don't talk about how God impacts their life. Of course, this is because He's not part of their life. They do mention the Mormon church's impact on their life. Looking back, I don't think I have ever heard a Mormon talk about looking forward to being with Christ in Heaven. They do mention the desire to be with their families, but there is no looking forward to being with the Lord because there is no personal relationship with the Lord.

So what does this mean in terms of sharing the Gospel?

It means sharing how my relationship with the Lord has changed my eternity and my today.

It means showing them our God, who cares deeply about each of us individually.

Pray they will come to a saving faith & relationship with the Lord.

Deputation & Family News

- We are praising the Lord for providing more support for our ministry and for enabling us to get the 30 meetings we had prayed for. We hope to add another five meetings to the 30 we have scheduled.
- We were able to be home for our sending church's Mission Conference. This was quite a blessing! Several people in our church made spiritual decisions. It reminded us to be active in sowing the Gospel seed.
- We are also praising the Lord that Rich's brother, Pete, has begun attending church and is allowing Rich to talk about spiritual things with him. This is an answer to a more than a decades worth of prayer.
